1.2 Principal Office. The principal office of the Association shall be located in the City of Houston, Harris County, Texas.

1.3 Other Offices. The Association may also have offices at such other places both in or out of the State of Texas as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the Association may require.

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERS, MEETINGS AND VOTING RIGHTS

2.1 Members.

(a) Each and every person, persons, or legal entity who shall own any Lot, shall automatically be, and must remain, a Member of the Association. Such membership shall be appurtenant to each Lot and may not be severed from or held separately therefrom. Provided, that any person or entity who holds such an interest merely as security for the performance of any obligation shall not be a Member. No Member shall have any right or interest in the assets of the Association, including, without limitation, any right to distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Association, whether voluntary or involuntary.

(b) Subject to Article II of the Restrictions, the Association shall have two classes of membership (Class A Members and Class B Members) and such classes of membership shall be governed by the Restrictions.

2.2 Place of Meetings. Meetings of the Members shall be held at the time and place in or out of this state, stated in the notice of the meeting or in a waiver of notice. If no designation is made, or if a special meeting be otherwise called, the place of the meeting shall be the principal office of the Association.

2.3 Annual Meetings. An annual meeting of the Members shall be held at the principal office of the Association or at such other place as may be designated in writing by the Board of Directors, at 7:00 p.m. on the first Wednesday in April. If this day falls on a legal holiday, the annual meeting shall be held at the same time on the next following business day thereafter. The purpose of the annual meetings shall be to elect directors and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

2.4 Notice of Meeting. Notice of the meeting, stating the place, day and hour of the meeting, and in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given in writing to each Member entitled to vote at the meeting at least ten (10) but not more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting either personally or by mail or other means of written communication, addressed to the Member at their address appearing on the books of the Association or given by them to the Association for the purpose of notice. Notice of adjourned meetings is not necessary unless the meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, in which case notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of any special meeting.

2.5 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Members for any purpose or purposes whatsoever may be called at any time by the President, by the Board of Directors or the holders of not less than one-half (1/2) of the total eligible votes of each class of membership of the Association. Business transacted at a special meeting shall be confined to the purposes stated in the notice of the meeting.

2.6 Quorum. The Members holding a majority of the total eligible votes of each class of membership of the Association, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Members for the transaction of business, except as otherwise provided by law, by the Articles of Incorporation or by these By-Laws. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the Members, the Members entitled to vote there at, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have the power to adjourn the meeting from time to time without notice other than announcement at the meeting until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented by proxy business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified. The Members present at a duly constituted meeting may continue to transact business until adjournment, despite the withdrawal of enough Members to leave less than a quorum.

2.7 Method of Voting

(a) Subject to the foregoing limitations the Class A Members shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each Lot in which they hold the interest required for membership. Prior to the Conversion Date, the Class B Member shall be entitled to five (5) votes for each Lot it owns. From and after the Conversion Date, the Class B Member shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each Lot in which it holds the interest required for Association membership. No Owner shall be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Association until such Owner has presented evidence of ownership of a Lot to the Secretary of the Association. Any Member who is in default in the payment of any Assessment or any other sums owed to the Association may have his right to vote revoked by action of the Board of Directors, pending payment of such amounts.

(b) In the event that ownership interests in a Lot are owned by more than one Member of the Association, such Members shall exercise their right to vote in such manner as they may among themselves determine, but in no event shall the number of votes set forth in Section 2.7 be cast for each Lot. Such Members shall appoint one of them as the Member who shall be entitled to exercise the vote of that Lot at any meeting of the Association. Such designation shall be made in writing to the Board of Directors and shall be revocable at any time by actual written notice to the Board. The Board shall be entitled to rely on any such designation until written notice revoking such designation is received by the Board. In the event that a Lot is owned by more than one Member and no single Member is designated to vote on behalf of the Members having an ownership interest in such Lot, then none of such Members shall be allowed to vote.

(c) All Members of the Association may attend meetings of the Association and all voting Members may exercise their vote or votes at such meetings either in person or by proxy. Fractional votes and split votes will not be permitted. The decision of the Board of Directors as to the number of votes which any Member is entitled to cast, based upon the number of Lots owned by him, shall be final.

(d) At any meeting of the Members, every Member having the right to vote may vote either in person, or by proxy executed in writing by the Member or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Each proxy shall be revocable unless expressly provided therein to be irrevocable or unless otherwise made irrevocable by law. Each proxy shall be filed with the Secretary of the Association prior to or at the time of the meeting. Voting for directors shall be in accordance with Section 3.7 of these By-Laws. Any vote may be taken by voice or by show of hands unless someone entitled to vote objects, in which case written ballots shall be used.

2.8 Organization. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Members. In his absence a Vice President shall preside. In the absence of all of these officers any Member or the duly appointed proxy of any Member may call the meeting to order and a chairman shall be elected from among the Members present.

The Secretary of the Association shall act as secretary at all meetings of the Members. In his absence an assistant secretary shall so act and in the absence of all of these officers the presiding officer may appoint any person to act as Secretary of the meeting.

2.9 Action Without Meeting. Any action required by any provision of law or of the Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws to be taken at a meeting of the Members or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Members may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, shall be signed by all of the Members entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof, and such consent shall have the same force and effect as an unanimous vote of the Members. The consent may be in more than one counterpart.

2.10 Telephone and Similar Meetings. Members, directors and committee members may participate in and hold a meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

2.11 Order of Business at Meetings. The order of business at annual meetings and so far as practicable at other meetings of Members shall be as follows unless changed by the Board of Directors:

- (1) call to order;
- (2) proof of due notice of meeting;
- (3) determination of quorum and examination of proxies;
- (4) announcement of availability of voting list;
- (5) announcement of distribution of annual statement;
- (6) reading and disposing of minutes of last meeting of Members;
- (7) reports of officers and committees;
- (8) unfinished business;
- (9) new business; and
- (10) nomination of directors.

ARTICLE THREE

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

3.1 Management. The property, business and affairs of the Association shall be managed by the Board of Directors who may exercise all such powers of the Association and do all such lawful acts and things as are not (by statute or by the Articles of Incorporation or by these By-Laws) directed or required to be exercised or done by the Members. The Directors shall have all of the powers, authority and duties of the Association existing under the Act, the Restrictions and these By-Laws, which shall be exercised exclusively by the Board, its agents, contractors or employees, subject only to approval by Members when such is specifically required by law, the Restrictions or these By-Laws.

3.2 Committees. In addition to the committees provided for in the Restrictions and these By-Laws, the Board of Directors may by resolution designate one (1) or more committees, each of which shall consist of two (2) or more Members, which committee, to the extent provided in said resolution, shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Association; but the designation of such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any individual director, of any responsibility imposed on it or him by law.

3.3 Number; Qualification; Election; Term. The Board of Directors shall consist of three (3) persons. On or after the Conversion Date, the directors of the Association must be Members, however prior to such date, directors need not be Members of the Association.

3.4 Change in Number. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to these By-Laws but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director and provided that the Board of Directors may never consist of less than three (3) directors. Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors shall be filled by election at an annual meeting or at a special meeting of Members called for that purpose.

3.5 Removal. Any director may be removed either for or without cause at any special or annual meeting of Members, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the total eligible votes of each class of membership of the Association present, in person or by proxy, at such meeting and entitled to vote for the election of such director if notice of intention to act upon such matter shall have been given in the notice calling such meeting. In the case this Association has cumulative voting, if less than the entire board is to be removed, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him if then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors, or if there be classes of directors, at an election of the class of directors of which he is a part.

3.6 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors (by death, resignation, removal or otherwise) may be filled by an affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum of the Board of Directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office.

3.7 Election of Directors. Directors shall be elected by majority vote. Cumulative voting shall not be permitted.

3.8 Place of Meetings. Meetings of the Board of Directors, regular or special, may be held in or out of the state of incorporation.

3.9 Annual Meetings. The first meeting of a newly elected board shall be held without further notice immediately following the annual meeting of Members, and at the same place, unless by unanimous consent of the directors then elected and serving the time or place is changed.

3.10 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and place as shall from time to time be determined by the board.

3.11 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President on three day's notice to each director, either personally or by mail or by telegram. Special meetings shall be called by the President or Secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of two directors. Except as otherwise expressly provided by statute, Articles of Incorporation, or these By-Laws, neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting need be specified in a notice or waiver of notice.

3.12 Quorum; Majority Vote. At meetings of the Board of Directors a majority of the number of directors fixed by these By-Laws shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, except as otherwise specifically provided by statute, the Articles of Incorporation, or these By-Laws. If a quorum is not present at a meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

3.13 Compensation. By resolution of the Board of Directors, the directors may be paid their expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors and may be paid a fixed sum for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors or a stated salary as director. No such payment shall preclude any director from serving the Association in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor. Members of the executive committee or of special or standing committees may, by resolution of the Board of Directors, be allowed like compensation for attending committee meetings.

3.14 Procedure. The President, or in his absence, any Director selected by the Directors present, shall preside at meetings of the Board of Directors. The Secretary of the Association, or in his absence, any person appointed by the presiding officer, shall act as Secretary of the Board of Directors and keep regular minutes of the proceedings. The minutes shall be placed in the minute books of the Association.

3.15 Action without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken without a meeting may be taken if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all the members of the Board of Directors. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote at a meeting. The signed consent, or a signed copy, shall be placed in the minute book. The consent may be in more than one counterpart so long as each director signs one of the counterparts.

3.16 Presumption of Assent to Action. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the Secretary of the Association immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

ARTICLE FOUR

NOTICE

4.1 Method. Whenever by statute, the Articles of Incorporation, these By-Laws, or otherwise, notice is required to be given to a director, committee member, or security holder, and no provision is made as to how the notice shall be given, it shall not be construed to mean personal notice, but any such notice may be given: (a) in writing, by mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the director, committee member, or security holder at the address appearing on the books of the Association; or (b) in any other method permitted by law. Any notice required or permitted to be given by mail shall be deemed given at the time when the same is thus deposited in the United States mails.

4.2 Waiver. Whenever, by statute or the Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws, notice is required to be given to a security holder, committee member, or director, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated in such notice, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a person attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

(d) He shall be under the supervision of the President. He shall perform such other duties and have such other authority and powers as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe or as the President may from time to time delegate.

(d) He shall perform such other duties and have such other authority and powers as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe or as the President may from time to time delegate.

ARTICLE SIX

By resolution the Board of Directors may create such reserve or reserves out of the earned surplus of the Association as the directors from time to time, in their discretion, think proper to provide for contingencies, or to repair or maintain any property of the Association, or for any other purpose they think beneficial to the Association. The directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

The resignation shall take effect at the time specified in it, or immediately if no time is specified. Unless it specifies otherwise, a resignation takes effect without being accepted.

Also, such action may be taken pursuant to Article 3.15 herein.

(b) These By-Laws may also be altered, amended or repealed at any meeting of the Members at which a quorum is present or represented, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the total eligible votes of each class of membership of the Association present or represented at the meeting and entitled to vote there at, provided notice of the proposed alteration, amendment or repeal is contained in the notice of the meeting.

6.9 Liability and Indemnification.

(c) To the fullest extent permitted by Section K of Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, reasonable expenses incurred by a director of the Association who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding shall be paid or reimbursed by the Association, in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding, after the Association receives a written affirmation by the director of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the Association and the Association receives a written undertaking by or behalf of the director to repay the amount paid or reimbursed if it is ultimately determined that he has not met that standard or if it is ultimately determined that indemnification of the director against expenses incurred by him in connection with that proceeding is otherwise prohibited by said Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act. This provision for payment or reimbursement shall be deemed to constitute authorization of such payment or reimbursement as provided by said Section K of Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act.

(d) Pursuant to Section O of Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, the Association shall indemnify and advance expenses to an officer of the Association to the same extent that the Association shall indemnify and pay or reimburse expenses to directors of the Association as set forth in subsections (b) and (c) hereinabove.

(e) To the fullest extent permitted by Section N of Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, the Association shall pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director or officer in connection with his appearance as a witness or other participation, only in his capacity as a director or officer of the Association, in a proceeding at a time when he is not a named defendant or respondent in the proceeding as set out therein.

It is the intention of the Association to provide the maximum indemnification allowed by law to its directors and officers and to make mandatory in all instances any permissive provisions of Article 2.22A of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act for the benefit of the Association's directors and officers.

(g) Any amendment or repeal of this Section 6.9 shall be prospective only and shall not adversely affect any limitation of the personal liability of a director or the

(h) In the event Tex. Rev. Civ. Stat. Art. 1302-7.06(B) any provision of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act set out in this Section 6.9 is amended, altered or repealed in any way, then any such amendment, alteration or repeal shall be incorporated herein without the necessity of any further action by the Association upon the effective date of such action.
